Whitehall, May 3.

THE following Addreſs has been preſented to his Majeſty by Captain Edward Stanhope: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, and Freeholders, aſſembled at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace of the Weſt Riding of the County of York, held at Pontefract the 23d Day of April, in the Seventh Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

WE your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, and Freeholders, aſſembled at the ſaid General Quarter Seſſions, beg Leave humbly to congratulate your Majeſty on Occaſion of the late happy Marriage between her Highneſs the Princeſs Royal and his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange; a Name which breathes Engliſh Liberty and Property, and every thing dear to all true Engliſhmen, and true Proteſtants; Titles which had been long before now extinct, had it not been for this Prince's great and glorious Anceſtor, that Prince of Orange, from whom we originally derive all the preſent Bleſſings of this Nation, and the greateſt of all, your Majeſty, and the Power we now have of thanking your Majeſty for all the Hopes and Fears which ariſe from this Marriage: For what is it that the Cauſe of true Proteſtantiſm may not hope? What is it that its Enemies may not fear from this happy Union, and from that Perpetuity it promiſes to our preſent Happineſs.

As your Majeſty does every thing in the Power of Majeſty and Goodneſs to perpetuate our Happineſs, we in Return cannot but do every thing in the Power of Loyalty and Gratitude to perpetuate your Majeſty's; and will make it our Buſineſs to convince all Men, that this our Gratitude does not conſiſt only in Words, but in Activity, and in doing all we can to chuſe and ſend ſuch Repreſentatives to Parliament, as are not likely to give up thoſe civil and religious Liberties of Engliſhmen, which your Majeſty by this and all the Steps of your Royal Conduct, does all you can to preſerve to your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriff, and the reſt of the Common Council of the Town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Matthew Fetherſtone Haugh, Eſq; one of the Aldermen of the ſaid Town: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriff, and the reſt of the Common Council of the Town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, in the County of the Town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, do humbly beg Leave to preſent this our congratulatory Addreſs to your ſacred Majeſty, upon the Marriage of the Princeſs Royal with his moſt Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange, which Alliance ſeems to have been univerſally deſired by your Majeſty's Subjects, and the Accompliſhment thereof hath given the moſt general Satisfaction.

Our former Alliances with that moſt illuſtrious Houſe have always been attended with very great Advantages to our Nation, and have proved a very great Support to the Proteſtant Intereſt.

It is freſh in our Memories, and ought never to be forgotten what that great and glorious Prince King William the Third, did for the Engliſh Nation, who not only reſcued and delivered theſe Kingdoms from the moſt imminent Dangers, but ſecured our moſt valuable Rights and Liberties to us in ſuch a Manner, that the many ineſtimable Bleſſings

Bleſſings we have continually enjoyed under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, may, without leſſening the Glories of it, be in ſome Meaſure attributed to the neceſſary Conſequences of his Benefactions to theſe Nations.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall all of us, in our reſpective Stations, uſe our moſt ſteady and hearty Endeavours to promote and encourage an inviolable Affection for your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government; and that your Reign may be eaſy and happy, long and proſperous, ſhall be our continual Prayers.

Given under our Common Seal, this 22d Day of April, in the Year of our Lord God, 1734.

Berlin, May 1, N. S. On Wedneſday Morning laſt, the Body of Pruſſians deſigned for the Emperor's Aſſiſtance, ſet out from hence on their March in two Columns: The one commanded by Lieutenant General Rhoder is gone to Hall, and the other commanded by Prince Leopold, the Prince of Anhalt's eldeſt Son, is gone to Magdebourg; at both which Places theſe Corps are to wait for new Orders. Some Regiments of Horſe and Foot in Pruſſia, included in the 60 Battallions and 40 Squadrons lately ordered to hold themſelves in Readineſs to march, have received Counter-Orders.

Berlin, May 4, N. S. The Muſcovite Artillery, which was at Pillau, is certainly arrived before Dantzick, and paſſed through the Friſch Haff, according to his Pruſſian Majeſty's Permiſſion. Late this Evening the Poſt Maſter General received Advice, that the Ruſſians had begun to bombard Dantzick on the 1ſt Inſtant.

Rotterdam, May 7, N S. Their Royal and Serene Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Orange, came to an Anchor this Forenoon about Ten a-Clock before the Quay, having been ſaluted with a triple Diſcharge of the Cannon of the Town and Ships lying in the River. Meſſ. Walpole, Finch, Sporcke and Dayrolle, immediately went on board the Fubbs Yacht to pay their Duty to their Highneſſes, whom they had the Pleaſure to find perfectly well. The Miniſters of the ſeveral Congregations here have made their Compliments, as has the Magiſtracy of the Town; where there is the greateſt Appearance of good Will and Joy. Their Highneſſes proceed on their Journey To-morrow Morning for Amſterdam, where the Government deſign to ſhew them the ſame Reſpect they have had here.

Hague, May 11, N. S. Their Royal and Serene Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Orange ſet out from Rotterdam on Saturday laſt about Seven in the Morning for Amſterdam, where being arrived, they went directly on board the Yacht, and ſet Sail for Frieſland. At Rotterdam the ſame Honours were paid their Royal and Serene Highneſſes as were formerly done to the Princeſſes Royal of England. At Amſterdam, the Guards at the Gate where they entred were under Arms, with Colours flying; and a Detachment was ordered to eſcort them to their Yacht, where a Deputy from the Magiſtrates came immediately to know if the Prince intended to make any Stay, in which Caſe the ſaid Magiſtrates deſired to come and pay their Compliments to their Royal and Serene Highneſſes. The Prince excuſed himſelf from receiving them, being ready to ſet Sail. We have Advices from Francfort, that Traerbach capitulated on the 2d Inſtant.

Richmond May 2.

This Day Juſuph Cogia, Envoy from the Bey of Tunis, had a private Audience of Leave of his Majeſty; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Harrington, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Maſter of the Ceremonies.

He had afterwards a private Audience of Leave of the Queen, being introduced by the Maſter of the Ceremonies.
